DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
OFFICE OF THE CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS
WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

Mr. Allen W. Dulles
Director of Central Intelligence
2430 E Street, N.W.
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Dulles:

On 30 August 1953 [redacted] STATINTL of your agency delivered a series of lectures to the student officers at the Naval Intelligence School. These lectures were on the subjects of "Hydrographic Forms", "Introduction to Aerial Photo Interpretation", and "Basic Photography". [redacted] STATINTL lectures were exceptionally interesting and of high instructional value. They were considered to be among the highlights of the Naval Intelligence School curriculum.

It is requested that [redacted] STATINTL again be made available to present lectures on the aforementioned subjects to the current class of Naval Intelligence School student officers. The hours from 8:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. on 23 February 1954 have been set aside for these lectures, if convenient.

It is further requested that a member of the Naval Intelligence School staff be authorized to contact [redacted] STATINTL directly to arrange the details for presentation of these lectures.

Sincerely yours,

Carl F Espe
Rear Admiral, U S Navy
Director of Naval Intelligence
